

Spring Clothes For Good Dressers

Don't envy the man with the new Spring suit—come to us—make your selection—get your comfort from perfectly tailored, new stylish garments from the world's best manufacturers—

Hart, Schaffner & Marx and College Brand Clothes.

They are fashioned with character and knacks of style that mean distinctiveness. Shapely shoulders, tailored to hold their shape and keep the graceful coat lines. Collars that set snug about the neck. It simply cannot sag or pull away—another instance of good tailoring. Coat fronts that don't wrinkle, sag or break, because the hidden parts are carefully hand shaped to follow the rounded lines of the body.

THE CITY B. Y. P. U.

Some months ago there was organized in Nashville what is known as the City Baptist Young People's Union. In forming this organization it took in possibly over twenty-five Baptist churches with young people's organizations. The president was selected from the Mt. Olive Baptist church, the largest in the city, in the person of Mr. J. Blaine Boyd. The city organization was to meet at one of the Baptist churches monthly. The meetings were to rotate. The first meeting, since the organization, was held at the Pleasant Green Baptist Church, Rev. Mr. Fields pastor. The second meeting was to have been held at First Baptist Church, East Nashville, last Sunday. Quite a number were present, including Rev. Mr. Fields, Miss Hall, Rev. Dr. Clark, President Boyd and others, but the attendance was so scattered and so irregular the meeting was postponed to some future date.

MARRIAGES.

St. Clair Smith and Sylvia Etta Henderson.
R. S. Anderson and Mary Williams.
G. W. Terrass and Mattie Jones.
George Jackson and Fannie Parker.
Marcellus Bostic and Beulah J. Williams.

EBENEZER NOTES.

Rev. N. Smith and Mr. William Hall on last Sunday evening performed the sacred duty of administering the Lord's Supper to Mrs. Lizzie Couch, who is very sick at her home in Lusk town.
The revival meeting is now being held. It is hoped that some able minister will assist Rev. Mr. Smith in his great effort to advance the cause.
Recently a social club has been formed by several of the young ladies and gentlemen. Mr. Allen Copeland is President. Misses Henly, Lula Sledge and Walker, Misses Telford, McIntosh and Price are members.
The Sunday school is growing so rapidly that more teachers are needed. The number of scholars enrolled is forty and is increasing every Sunday. Mr. Howlett, the superintendent, is elated over the success. Miss Della Buchanan is at present the organist for Sunday school and church. The members of the choir are Misses Lillie Hall, Reba Johnson, Addie Buchanan, Lottie Anthony, Bettie Lusk, Carrie Rideout and Hattie Henley. Messrs. Hazzie Huggins, Andrew McIntosh, Elmore Telford and Henry H. Walker.

Mrs. A. A. Neal has closed her third term of school in Neely Bend and is at home on the Murfreesboro pike.

DIES IN ST. LOUIS.

Mr. George Fleming, who left this city a number of years ago to live in St. Louis, Mo., died in that city last Friday. His remains were brought here Monday morning and carried to the home of his sister, Mrs. Frierson, on Jo Johnston avenue. The funeral services were held Tuesday.

WILL NOT ATTEND BOARD MEETING.

It is learned that the call issued by Rev. E. C. Morris for the Executive Board of the National Baptist Convention to meet in Washington, D. C., on May 17 and 18, will not be responded to by all the members of the various boards. Dr. C. H. Clark, Chairman of the Publishing Board, will not attend the meeting unless a different construction is put upon the call. The doctor does not construe the call to mean that the chairmen of the various boards of the National Baptist Convention are expected to be present, although it is stated that the original intention of organizing an executive board to the National Baptist Convention was to have the chairmen and secretaries of the boards, with the officers of the convention, to comprise the executive board. It seems that the Baptists are having so many constructions put upon their calls that they themselves do not know just when they are complying with their own rules. If the three boards of the National Convention which should be located in Nashville, are to be represented in this meeting at Washington, it would take to that city Drs. R. H. Boyd, of the Publishing Board; E. W. D. Isaac, of the B. Y. P. U. Board; C. H. Clark, of the Publishing Board, and Wm. Beckham, Field Secretary. It is not learned definitely whether any one of these, except Rev. Beckham will be present. At this meeting the program for the National Convention is usually arranged. Then, too, other matters of importance that cannot remain over until the annual meetings, are usually taken under advisement. Whether Dr. J. P. Robinson, of Little Rock, Ark., chairman of the Home Mission Board, and Rev. Dr. Frank, of Louisville, Ky., chairman of the Foreign Mission Board, so interpreted the call is not learned. If Dr. Robinson and Dr. Frank attend, it will be, possibly, in the interest of matters concerning 'their boards' places on the program for the coming convention.

REARRESTED ON CHARGE OF MURDER.

The wounds of Charlie Smith, who was shot last Saturday night by Geo. Spurlock, proved fatal. Mr. Smith died at the city hospital Monday morning. His relatives are determined to indicate his untimely death, and immediately his uncle, Mr. Ed Baker, wore out a warrant for the arrest of Geo. Spurlock on the charge of murder. The warrant was served by constable Jesse Welch. Spurlock was taken before Justice Dan U. Burke and committed to jail without bail. It is said that the two men met at the house of a woman near Pearl and Watkins streets, and that there, after some minutes of unpleasant words and wrangling, the shooting occurred. Some seem to think that jealousy was the cause of the shooting. The prisoner has not been interviewed but it is said he would not make any remarks whatever except to say that it was a very unfortunate occurrence.

WILL BE HOME IN MAY.

A letter from Clarence Eugene Allen, who will finish with the class of 1907 at the Atlanta Baptist College, Atlanta, Ga., says that he will be home in May. The letter was addressed to Mr. H. Allen Boyd, and reads in part as follows:

"Yours of some weeks ago was most gladly received. I note with much satisfaction that you are doing a good work in Nashville, and that you see nothing more encouraging than to help uplift fallen humanity, as well as to assist in the advancement of our race. I am exceedingly glad to have the good wishes of my friends at home. The closing days of my college career are near at hand. I would appreciate very highly anything the Globe might make mention of concerning my college days. I am finishing here after a very good and successful year. Our closing day is May 15. I expect to be in Nashville some time during the month of May. It is my intention to take a professional course. I am anticipating entering the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis, to take a course in dentistry, as this is my choice in the professions. It is a great field and so far as our people are concerned it is as yet undeveloped. Remember me most kindly to inquiring friends.

Yours truly,

CLARENCE EUGENE ALLEN.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF ASSAULT.

Last Monday during the day Al Johnson, who was arrested charged with assaulting Chas. McMahon of the county road camp wards last week, was arrested and placed behind the bars. Johnson was located by patrolman Henry McCarver near Mt. Nebo settlement in West Nashville. They visited the places where he was supposed to be standing about 11 o'clock, but he had gone. He was finally arrested and brought to town and committed to jail without bail.
